SHANE'S CAMPAIGN

His point: Shasta City has been left a little quiet by the absence of a jailed inmate behind Leonard Peltier. But now his ubiquitous signs are shaking the air of local law enforcement.

By John Galsford

Just past 9 p.m. and nearly 100 miles into Shasta County, a man in the Central Valley is seen in the streets across Interstate 5, the long, flat highway that runs the length of the state, just a few miles from the California coast. He is holding a sign that reads "FREE LEONARD PELTIER" and is shouting "FREE LEONARD PELTIER" to the passing cars.

Shasta County has been left in a quiet state by the absence of a jailed inmate behind Leonard Peltier. But now his ubiquitous signs are shaking the air of local law enforcement.

"It's just what they need," Gray says. "It's just what they need to know that Leonard Peltier is still alive and that they need to know that Leonard Peltier is still alive and that they need to know that Leonard Peltier is still alive."

Most of the time, Gray's "Free Leonard Peltier" signs are seen in the streets of Shasta County, but they are also seen in the streets of other counties, including Butte, Colusa, Glenn, Humboldt, Klamath, Modoc, Siskiyou, and Yuba. Gray says he has been seen in the streets of other counties, including Butte, Colusa, Glenn, Humboldt, Klamath, Modoc, Siskiyou, and Yuba.

While some people are certainly sympathetic, Gray himself has received little more than a few letters from the state's governor, Jerry Brown, and the state's attorney general, Stanley Mosk. But he has been seen in the streets of other counties, including Butte, Colusa, Glenn, Humboldt, Klamath, Modoc, Siskiyou, and Yuba.

On a recent day, Gray was seen in the streets of Shasta County, but he was also seen in the streets of other counties, including Butte, Colusa, Glenn, Humboldt, Klamath, Modoc, Siskiyou, and Yuba.

What if every musician you knew put their music files for 30 days?

What if you recorded the best song of your life?

What if the world saw never the same?

// THIS IS NOT A CONTEST //
THIS IS A WORLD-WIDE CHALLENGE // JOIN US!

What's stopping you? Starting February 1st Record Production Month! You have no reason to say NO, and nothing to lose.

Shut off your gear.
Get into all distractions.
Get the band back together.
And get to work creating new music!

The RPM Challenge is simple!
Record an album in 30 days. Just because you can.
That's 28 songs or 28 tracks of original material recorded during the month of February.

Last year, over 40 Bay Area bands participated,
and the movement is quickly growing!

To participate or learn more, visit our website
www.RPMchallenge-den.com

On March 26, the Express will host a celebratory listening party where new tracks from every album
submitted is played.
See you there!
